

PROPAGANDA MACHINE

State school teachers work hard – harder than they should have to, because their masters force an unnatural concentration of less advantaged students upon them.

But the state system operators, (the state unions, bureaucrats and academics), pump out a never-ending stream of misleading articles in the media, all designed to convince the public that they are actually protecting the disadvantaged children. A cruel hoax.

Previous

Close

Next